

Mayor's Upper Window

Arthur Green, Mayor

The Tide of Life: Norman Vincent Peal tells the story of a struggling businessman who reached a turning point in life after seeing a picture of a boat stuck in the sand. The caption said, "The Tide Always Comes Back."

There are two mistakes we make in life. When things are good, we tend to think they will always be right. When things are bad, we tend to believe they will always be bad. Both are wrong. Life, and all it consists of tend to go up and down in cycles.

Peal went on to say that there is one constant in all this: God's faithfulness to us. Our ability to thrive depends on our devotion to him.

So, wherever you find yourself today, just remember the cycles of life do not stay the same. Many have had bad times during Covid-19 and many have had good times. How you adapt to wherever you find yourself will depend on your attitude. Got lemons-make lemonade.
