Congratulations to Officer Stayce Player. Officer Player graduated from the Department of Criminal Justice Training. Officer Player received the Academic Achievement Award and received the Recruit of Distinction Award. Officer Player will be starting his 12 week Field Training Program soon with Captain Smith.

City Hall welcomes a Todd Central Co-op student for the 2022-23 school year, Raine Hightower. You will see her in the afternoons in City Hall.

The Mural is a great addition to the city of Elkton and a reminder of bygone days and will be enjoyed by all who come to Elkton, Thanks to Shelter Insurance and Superior Paint and Body Center for having this restored.

REMINDER

The City only picks up small bundles of brush piles, these piles must be bundled together and easily handled by one person.

To have a brush pile picked up please call City Hall at 270-265-9877

Office Will be Closed

November 11th
In Observance Of Veterans Day
